

Online English Language Test – CLBPT Remote

What is your level of English? Do you want to know what you can do in English in listening, speaking, reading and writing? Do you need to know more about language training available to you in your town and across Nova Scotia? Do you need proof of your English language proficiency for your school or your employer?

Take the Canadian Language Benchmark Placement Test online and get the language training you need!

You might be eligible for this two-hour computerized test if you are:

- A permanent resident of Canada
- A protected person
- A Canadian citizen born outside of Canada
- An individual awaiting statutory CIC checks
- A Nova Scotia nominee
- A PR applicant with a valid work permit
- An international graduate with a valid work and graduate permit

Visit our website www.lasns.info to complete an online application or email Olga at olga@lasns.info for more details.

